

5* THE TABLE BAY HOTEL AREA

Set on the historic waterfront, this hotel has been created that is not only a tribute to this world famous bay, but which also sets its own standards in international service, cuisine and luxury. The 5-star Table Bay is magnificent, straddling the antique breakwater with a style that is both innovative and entirely in keeping with its surroundings. It's contemporary architectural treasure, its design and execution are the result of trans-continental co-operation.

ROOM FACILITIES

All rooms except Accessible Rooms have en-suite bathroom with marble topped vanity & large walk-in shower. Each room either overlooks the bay to Robben Island Prison, home of South Africa's former President Nelson Mandela for the greatest part of his 27 years of political incarceration, or across the harbour and the city to Table Mountain. The hotel was opened with much fanfare in May 1997 by President Nelson Mandela himself.
